

Report of English

2017-2019

We, the English optional of Kerala University College of Teacher Education, Anchal are happy to mention a few programmes carried out by the first semester B. Ed students.

Association Inauguration

The English Association 'AROHA' was inaugurated on 11 October 2017. The meeting was presided by the Principal Dr Binu. B.L. In that function, the students performed many programmes including power point presentation.

Spell Bee Competition

As a measure to improve the pronunciation skill of the B. Ed students, the English optional conducted a spell bee competition for all the optional as part of ‘AROHA’.

Manuscript Magazine

On 11 October 2017, a manuscript magazine of first semester English optional B. Ed was released by Principal Dr Binu B.L. It includes stories, poems, literary quiz, paintings etc.

Notice Board

A notice board is made by the effort of all the students for posting public messages, to announce events or to provide information.

Field Trip

The field trip as per the curriculum was on 6 October 2017. It was a journey to the capital city, Thiruvananthapuram. With the guidance of principal, teachers and non-teaching staffs, the students visited Planetarium, Zoo, Museum, and Art gallery. It was an informative and enjoyable journey.

Women's Day celebration

The English optional of KUCTE conducted a women's day celebration on 8th of March 2017. The official announcement for the program was presented in the form of flash mob in which all the students of English optional participated. The title for the program was "Breaking the Silence". The programme was inaugurated by Yeroor SI Smt. Rema. A wide variety of programs were sequenced as part of womens day. A self defense program was conducted by martial arts trainer which was truly an asset to all the women. The program begun with a mind blowing song by Shira S Ali which was followed by a dashing performance of the students. Other programs include gaming session ,quizzing, musical drama etc.

All the programs were relevant to the day especially the musical drama stressed on women atrocities, and gave an awareness on the values of womanhood. Entire program came to an end by giving a tribute to the women who had lost their valuable lives. The program came to an end by 3.30 pm.

