

Report of Perspectives in Education Department

2nd semester class of 2016-18 Bed batch started on 09-01-2017 capacity building programme was conducted in March based on the concept that the influence of meaningfulness of words affect the refraining capacity of students 1 semester classes of 2017-19 Batch started on 27-08-2017.

As a part of SUPW, we conducted a visit to Gandhibhavan Patthanapuram with 1st year students on 27/09/2017. All staff and students contributed their share to Gandhibhavan.

A debate was conducted on the topic-different schools of philosophy on 17-10-2017 Teacher's day' was celebrated in general class by 1 year students very nicely and effectively and each students participation was ensured in that programme. The teacher evaluated their capacity in doing different works for it. It helped a lot to make awareness about the responsibilities of a teacher in nation-building.

A quiz programme was conducted for II year students on the basis of some portions from perspectives in education.

In the III Sem also conducted capacity building programme by giving different topics and made a talk on it.

Other Activities

Onam celebration, Republic day, Independence day, Science day, Food fest, Yoga classes Women's day celebration (Sakhshi-2K17) were conducted in college and all students participated in it.

Report of Technology Department

Computer lab activities were conducted by the first sem students they could make awareness about ICT based education. They practiced in making different types of slides and how they can be used to prepare lesson plan. All students created their own Blogs and posted some matters in it.